

Topic Sentence: Students now a days face a lot of bullying in universities and facing ragging can destroy one's mental health.

First Supporting sentence: First of all ragging can ruin one's career for a lifetime.

Second Supporting sentence: Secondly the effect of ragging can take one's attempt to suicide.

Third Supporting sentence: Last but not least it hampers the environment of the institute.

Concluding Sentence: This reason proves that, ragging can destroy a student's life. So, ragging should be banned in Bangladeshi universities.

Why Ragging Should be Banned in Bangladeshi Universities

Students now a days face a lot of bullying in universities and facing ragging can destroy one's mental health. First of all, ragging can ruin one's career for a lifetime. Ragging creates mental pressure on students. Mental pressure hampers their study. Ragging distracts students from their studies. Secondly, the effect of ragging can take one's attempt to suicide. Every student can't tolerate bullying in front of their classmates. For that reason sometimes they attempt suicide. Ragging ruins the career of brilliant students. Last but not least it hampers the environment of the institute. Ragging is a punishable occurrence. Ragging creates fear in the students. For this reason, they can't concentrate on their study. This reason proves that ragging can destroy a student's life. So, ragging should be banned in Bangladeshi universities